Etockslager Making War in His Enemy's Territory-Arrest of Alleged Counterfeiters at Lafavette.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 8.-Ex-Congressman J. B. Cheadle, of Frankfort, in a card in the Kokomo Tribune of Saturday announces himself as a candidate before the Ninth district congressional convention in this city June 6.

It had been the understanding that Mr. Cheadle was not an aspirant for renomination and his announcement is therefore something of a surprise, not only here but in other counties in the district. This gives Clinton county two candidates, Capt. Hart having announced his candidacy early in the campaign. There are now five actice candidates for the honor. Capt. H. H. Hart and J. B. Cheadle, of Clinton; W. R. Woods, of J. F. Hanley, of Warren. All the candidates except Mr. Cheadle and Mr. Hanley have already engaged quarters at the Clinton and Columbian hotels and are actively looking after their interests. Friends of Judge Waugh, the present incumbent, think he should not be left out of consideration in the coming contest though not a pronounced candidate for renomination. C. C. Shirley, of this city, is frequently men-tioned in connection with the office but he himself declines to be a candidate.

Pulaski County Republicans. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WINAMAC, Ind., April 8 .- The Republicans of Pulaski county met in mass convention here yesterday and showed that they were thoroughly aroused to the work of the campaign. Every township and precinct was well represented. A feature of the convention was the contest for the delegates to the congressional convention between the friends of Judge Johnson and B. Landis, the two leading candidates for the congressional nomination. The contest resulted somewhat to the advantage of Landis, but the delegation will probably be divided. Delegates were also selected for the State and other conventions.

POLITICS IN JACKSON.

Stockslager Decides to Risk the Fight in Brown's Territory.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SEYMOUR, Ind., April 8.-The present week promises to be the hottest one, in a political sense, in this county for years. The Democratic primary election for the selection of delegates to the congressional and senatorial conventions, and to name the county ticket, will take place on Friday. The fight increases in interest on account of Hon. S. M. Stockslager having been over the county, and, having found his chances about equal with Jason B. Brown's for congressional honors, has decided to have his name placed upon the ticket, and will make a fight for the delegates. The placing of Stockslager's name on the ticket was unexpected by the Brown forces, who did not expect him to make a fight in this county. The news was sent to Washington, and this morning Brown day has been spent in consultation, and they will put in the week in trying to repair the broken-down fances. Next Saturday the Republicans will hold conventions in every township in the county to select delegates to the joint senatorial convention of Jackson and Lawrance countles, which will be held at Mitchell on Tuesday, April 17. Mr. J. C. Van Harlingen, editor and publisher of the Seymour itepublican, has announced himself as a candidate. He is a man well qualified for the place; is a son of a soldier, and would make a strong fight for the place, out of which the Hon. W. N. McDonald was robbed, although he carried the two countles by an overwhelming majority.

ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS. Arrest of Three Men for Passing

Bogus Silver Dollars. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 8.-The police, about midnight last night, arrested William Hilt, who resides three miles from the city, and locked him up, under the impression here Saturday. Earlier in the evening Geo. Clossen was arrested and questioned as to whether or not he had not been passing counterfeit silver dollars. He strenuously denied it for a time, but Prosecuting Attorney Wood put him through such a rigid cross-examination that Clossen finally admitted that he had passed some of the money. He denied all knowledge of where it was made, or by whom, but admitted that it could be bought in any quantities desired at the rate of $300 in bogus coin for $25 in good coin. During the last two or three days quite a number of bogus coins were discovered by the banks, but on Saturday the number grew in frequency. Clossen claimed that he was only acting for other persons, saying that he was allowed 50 cents for every bogus dollar he got out and got good money in return for. The counterfeit is all right in ring, is of the date of 1891, does not have the greasy appearance that much of the bogus coin has, but it is a little light in weight. This afternoon Hilt admitted having passed four bogus silver dol-lars, thus putting himself in the law's clutches. Joseph Bennett was arrested tonight. He is the man Clossen says furnished the coins. He had a counterfeit dollar on his person, and also wires that were evidently used in plating the coins. The

REVOLUTIONARY PLOT

Cuban Insurrection Nipped by a Seizure of Munitions of War.

Two Hundred Rifles and 40,000 Cartridges Captured by the Authorities-Notes from Japan, Corea and Siam.

MADRID, April 8 .- The Governor General of Cuba has sent to Senor Becerra, Minister of the Colonies, details of the frustration by the government of Cuba of a revolutionary conspiracy. The leader of the movement, General Gomez, had collected two thousand rifles, intended for the use of insurgents in Cuba. Gomez was directing the movements of the conspirators from San Domingo, and was closely watched by the Spanish consul there. On April 4 Gomez sailed for New York and all the known facts were communicated to the Governor General. The military authorities were advised of the plot and a close watch was kept to prevent the landing of arms or ammunition. It was learned that a quantity of Tippecanoe; T. E. Boyd, of Hamilton, and | that he knew something about how counter- | arms and other contraband of war had been feit silver dollars were put into circulation | shipped from New York in the steamer Alert by General Marti, the well-known insurgent leader. By ramiliar methods these arms, etc., were passed through the custom house at Nuevitas, and were being taken into the interior. The military followed the train bearing the smuggled articles and came up with it at Puerto Principe, thirtysix miles southwest of Nuevitas. A raid was made on the train and two hundred Remington rifles and forty thousand cartridges were seized. The customs employes suspected of having been bribed to permit the landing of the contraband munitions of war have been suspended and an investigation will be made. The Minister of Colonies has sent a dispatch to the Governor General praising him for his action, and ordering that he deal in the strictest manner with the customs and railway officials implicated in the affair. SAN FRANCISCO, April 8 .- The steamship Belgic brings Japanese news up to March 24, as follows: The Emperor of Germany has indicated his intention of presenting the Emperor and Empress of Japan with a paid of porcelain vases as a memento of the imperial silver wedding. Two new political parties are being brought into existence in Japan. One is a fiscal association for developing the resources of the country on an economic basis; the other an agrarian league, pledged to further the interest of the farming class.

The King of Corea has refused to grant Russia permission to lay a submarine cable between Vladivostock and Censan. The Corean Minister of State is said to favor Russian interests. The Corean government is levying special taxes for the purpose of creating a navy. A native paper reports that Japan is about to build two new war ships of 15,000 tons each. The action of China in sending troops into Corea to punish brigands is causing much unfavorable feeling in Japan, and is said to be a violation of the treaty of Tien Tsin. From Siam comes an extraordinary case of credulity. Near Sapatome a Buddhist priest has been amassing great wealth by tattooing people to make them invulnerable. One of his dupes invited a number of friends to witness the potency of his charm and, placing a gun in his mouth, pulled the trigger with his toe. The priest has been forced out of business. It originated in the revengeful talk of a single Corean who had been stripped of his money by a confidence man and suffered himself to indulge in revolutionary threats against the reigning dynasty. The young fellow had been an office-seeker but, failing to secure an appointment, had offered large bribes to influential men. The confidence man is

A Texas Hallstone Story.

RHODE ISLAND RETURNS.

Democrats Secured Only Six Members of the Legislature.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 8.-The returns of the election, as corrected, give the total vote as 54,655. The vote last year was 54,679. An error was made in Coventry, where Brown was credited with 333 votes more than were cast, and an error of 116 was also found in Baker's vote. The vote for Governor gives Brown, Rep., 28,845; Baker, Dem., 22,808; Metcalf, Pro., 2,185. Brown's plurality is 6,038 and his majority 3,853, which is larger than any Governor has received for many years. The corrected returns show that there will be three Democrats in the House of Representatives and two Democrats and one independent Democrat in the Senate, Russell Young, of Scituate, having been counted out and Martin S. Smith, Rep., elected. The official vote for State officers is: Lieutenant-governor-Allen, Rep., 29,001; Young, Dem., 21,580; Fowler, Pro., 2,262. Secretary of State-Bennett, Rep., 31,131; Hefferman, Dem., 20,686; Greene, Pro., 2,464. Attorney-general-Dubois, Rep., 28,320; Aldrich, Dem., 19,946; Williams, Pro., 2,293. General Treasurer-Clark, Rep., 30,023; Perry, Dem., 20,290; Helme, Pro., 2,149. SMALLPOX AND ICEBERGS. The Steamer Obdam Menaced Within and Without. NEW YORK, April 8.-Smallpox and icebergs cut an important figure in the log of the Dutch steamer Obdam, which arrived to-day from Rotterdam. April 3 an iceberg seventy feet high and 250 feet long, with a smaller one near by, was seen in latitude 43:49, longitude 45:58. On March 29 S. De Boer, the fourth engineer of the steamer, was stricken with smallpox. The after part of the ship was roped off and no person allowed near the sick man, a quartermaster being-kept on watch day and night to prevent any communication. All the crew were immediately vaccinated. On the arrival of the steamer Dr. Jenkins had the patient transferred to the reception hospital and the vessel was thoroughly disinfected and cleaned, after which she was allowed to proceed to her dock.

The Campania's Eccentric Bent. QUEENSTOWN, April 8 .- The Cunard line steamer Campania sailed hence for New York to-day, but she did not get away until 7 o'clock in the evening. GULLS ARE SACRED IN UTAH. Why Grateful Mormons Impose a Fine for Killing the Bird. Atlantic Monthly.

Most interesting of the birds that we saw on our daily walk to the pasture were the gulls-great, beautiful, snowy creatures, who look strangely out of place so far away from the seashore. Stranger, too, than their change of residence was their change of manners from the wild, unapproachable sea birds, soaring and diving and apparently spending their lives on wings. From this high place in our thoughts, from this realm of poetry and mystery, to come down almost to the tameness of the barnyard fowl is a marvelous transformation, and one is tempted to believe the solemn announcement of the Salt Lake prophet that the Lord sent them to His chosen people. The occasion of this alleged special favor to the Latter Day Saints was the advent about twenty years ago of clouds of grasshoppers, before which the crops of the Western States and Territories were destroyed as by fire. It was then, in their hour of greatest need, when the food upon which devended a whole people was threatened, that these beautiful winged messengers appeared. In large flocks they came, from no one knows where, and settled like so many sparrows all over the land, devouring almost without ceasing the hosts of the foe. The crops were saved and all Deseret rejoiced. Was it any wonder that a people trained to regard the head of their church as the direct representative of the Highest should believe these to be really birds of God, and should accordingly cherish them? Well would it be for themselves if other Christian peoples were equally believing and protected and cherished other winged messengers sent just as truly to protect their crops. The shrewd man who wielded the destinies of his people beside the Salt lake secured the future usefulness of what they Dy HX. ing a penalty of $5 upon the head of every gull in the Territory. And now, the birds having found congenial nesting places on solitary islands in the lake, their descendants are so fearless and so tame that they habitually follow the plow like a flock of chickens, rising from almost under the feet of the indifferent horses and settling down at once in the furrow behind, seeking out grubs and larvae and mice and moles that the plow has disturbed in its passage The Mormon cultivator has sense enough to appreciate such service, and no man or boy dreams of lifting a finger against his best friend. Extraordinary. indeed, was sight to eyes accustomed to seeing every bird that attempts to render such like service shot and snared and swept from the face of the earth. Our hearts warmed toward the "Sons of Zion," and our respect for their intelligence increased as we hurrled down to the field to see this latter-day wonder.
